PETITIONING THE COURT

- ☐ To issue a warrant
☒ To issue a summons

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation Number Nature of Noncompliance

- 1 The offender has violated the supervision condition which states 'You shall not leave the judicial district without the permission of the Court or Probation Officer.'

On May 29, 2008, the probation office became aware that the offender left the district of New Jersey without permission on April 3-4, 2007, to Orlando, Florida; June 7-15, 2007, to Orlando, Florida; September 23-28, 2007, to Dallas, Texas, San Antonio, Texas, Phoenix, Arizona, and San Diego, California; October 21-25, 2007, to Chicago, Illinois; November 12-13, 2007, to Chicago, Illinois, and January 3-9, 2008, to Houston, Texas.

- 2 The offender has violated the supervision condition which states 'You shall notify the probation officer within 72 hours of any change of residence or employment.'

On May 15, 2008, the probation office became aware the offender was employed for Nimlok - NYC, a marketing company in Fairfield, New Jersey, without the knowledge of the Probation Office, from February 26, 2007, until his termination on February 18, 2008.

The offender has violated the supervision condition which states 'You shall not associate with any persons engaged in criminal activity, and shall not associate with any person convicted of a felony unless granted permission to do so by the probation officer.'

While employed with Nimlok from February 26, 2007, until February 18, 2008, the offender was working with his codefendant, Philip Zamloot. The U.S. Probation Office was unaware of this employment, and his criminal association with Zamloot. In addition, they traveled together for sales training on at least two occasions.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
